Local Happenings

W. H. Olson paid a business trip to Kirriemuir on Monday last.

Mrs. W. G. MacKenzie paid a brief visit to Edmonton this week.

Mrs. Carrol and Miss R. Cameron visited friends in Consort on Saturday last.

Mr. D. E. Gruver paid a brief visit to Consort on Saturday last.

Mr. Brant Milton, representing the Canadian National Institute for blind was in town on Friday and Saturday of last week, selling books for the benefit of his Institution.

In an interview with Mr. Milton we learn that it is the object of the Institution to make itself self-supporting through the sale of brooms, whisks, baskets, mats, etc., all of which are manufactured by the blind themselves. All of our advertisers who carry brooms as a line of merchandise are taking a supply of the blind men's output, so the next time you need a broom or a whisk, ask for one from the Institute for the Blind and thus assist in a very material way those sorely afflicted people.

Mr. George Wauder wishes to thank his friends and neighbors for their kind help and assistance accorded him during his recent misfortune.

Mr. Robert Larder, brother of "Doc" paid a brief visit over the week-end, returning to Youngstown on Monday.

Mr. Barratt of the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce was taken to the Hospital at Altario last week, suffering from Peritonitis.

Wanted. A girl to assist in the house during mornings only. Apply to Mrs. (Dr.) Mason Monitor.

Keep your mind on the 15th—a week from next Tuesday. This will be the occasion of the O. N. O. Girls dance

Mrs. J. Lewis received the sad news last week of the death of her father in the States. She left accompanied by Mrs. S. Lewis for her home there on Thursday of last week. The sympathy of her many friends is extended to Mrs. Lewis in her bereavement.

Miss Annie Martin is assisting in McGillis General Store.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Warner paid a visit to the former's sister Mrs. A. Baxter, at Pomukau on Sunday last.

Our old friend "Butch" McCarron returned from his wanderings in the old Country on Tuesday last. Butch doesn't look any thinner, and as far as we could see, he is still enjoying single bliss.

BOARD OF TRADE TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Geese Fly In February.

For the first time in our young life we heard the familiar "Honk honk" of geese on the wing in February. On Monday evening last, we would judge a flock of about 40 geese passed over Monitor, heading almost due east. Just what this phenomenon portends we do not pretend to know—may be spring has come.

KIRRIEMUIR

Evan Morris, Esq., General Merchant of Kirriemuir, has recently been appointed a Commissioner for Oaths.

Mr. J. W. Howard, of Hot Springs, S. Dakota, is renewing acquaintances in Kirriemuir.

Constable Sam English paid a surprise visit to town on Thursday evening last. We understand there was not much for him to do.

Mrs. Watling of Altario has been visiting Mrs. Hennessy the past week.

The Kirriemuir Dramatic Society are going right ahead with the preparation for their play "A Regular Fix" which will be presented as soon as the necessary scenery, recently ordered from England, arrives.

A good turnout attended the Dance held in the hall on Thursday last, when the Monitor Citizens Band played. Not much "pop" was shown until after the supper, but then things began to liven up, and it was with regret that we heard the "Home sweet home"

On Monday next, March 7th the Monitor Board of Trade will hold its Annual Meeting in Dr. Mason's office at 8 p.m. sharp.

The business will consist chiefly in the election of officers for the ensuing year, and it is hoped that a goodly number will make an effort to be present, in order that a real election may take place.

It is expected that a further discussion will take place in regard to the hospital, and all those interested in this vital matter, should be on hand and express their views concerning the same.

The Secretary's Annual Report will contain some very interesting reading, and a hearty invitation is extended to everyone to be present.

Jas. Glancey Is Elected

After a keenly contested race for the honor of occupying a councillor's chair in the R. M. of Stewart, James Glancey was elected by a majority of one, in ward Four. Voting was held on the last day of February, and there were two contestants for the honor Messrs. S. Hjelle and J. Glancey. Total votes cast were 39 of which Glancey secured 20 and Hjelle 19. The votes cast and the very close victory shows the high esteem in which both men are held by their neighbors.

Stonelaw U.F.A.

Owing to the fact that we were not present at the lecture given a week last Saturday, we regret to state the lecture was very inaccurately reported, and would doubtless create a wrong impression among our readers.

Mr. Bevington the lecturer, was brought down under the auspices of the above local of the U. F. A. and delivered an address which ranks among the best ever delivered in this district, the only regret being that more did not turn out to hear him. The lecture covered one of the most important subjects before the people of to-day and was on "Banking—the function of money and its relation to the people of to-day."

We have before us a copy of Mr. Bevington's speech before the U. F. A. convention this year, and will publish the same in instalments under the above heading.

The Stonelaw U. F. A. have been getting speakers throughout the winter, and will continue to do so, the main object being for the enlightenment of the people on the vital questions on economics of the day.

Old friends of Red Rose Tea who have used it for many years find it the same good tea to-day as it was all during the war and for many years before.

The Only Solution

In this column a few weeks ago, some attention was devoted to the subject of the Canadian Banking system and the relations existing between the Banks on the one hand and the public on the other hand—the public being divided into two groups, those who placed money on deposit in the Banks and those who borrowed money from the Banks. At that time the principle was upheld that a Bank's first duty was to its depositors, that is, to those from whom it had accepted money and for whom it undertook to act as a trustee of the funds thus entrusted to it.

It was further pointed out that the loaning power of a Bank depended upon the volume of its deposits, and that, if a Bank failed to adequately protect its depositors, it would very quickly lose them and hence have no money to loan. It may be that there are still some people laboring under the delusion that a Bank carries on a loaning business out of its paid-up capital and accumulated reserves, but it only requires a very casual study of the Monthly Banking Returns to reveal the fact that the total paid-up capital and reserves of all the chartered Banks in Canada is equivalent to only a small fraction of the amount of money they have out in loans to the people. This means that the Banks have loaned the money received by them by way of deposits, retaining in cash on hand only sufficient to meet any demands which depositors may make upon them from day to day.

Such a system—and it is the only sound and safe banking system—forces upon Banks the necessity when "hard times" and "financial stringencies" arise to curtail credits, because it is inevitable that it is during just such periods that (1) the making of deposits drop to a low mark, and, (2) that those who have money on deposit have to draw some of it for use. There is only one thing for the Banks to do in order to protect their depositors and be in a position to honor all cheques drawn upon them, and that is to curtail credits and reduce loans.

In a very notable address before the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' convention at Moose Jaw early in February, Hon. C. A. Dunning, Provincial Treasurer, not only very clearly outlined the above situation, but he demonstrated, apparently to the satisfaction of his big audience, why a Federal Banking system is the only one in which the people of the West can look for satisfactory results. The West is a seasonal country. In the Fall and early Winter, when the grain crop is harvested and largely marketed, the bulk of the people have money. It is at that time the farmers pay their bills, interest on loans and mortgages, and when the better established farmers place money on deposit in the Banks. At that season few farmers, comparatively speaking, require credit, unless it be for the speculative purpose of holding their grain for a rise in the market price.

At other periods of the year, farmers are not making deposits, but are either gradually withdrawing money they had on deposit or are asking credit.

In other words, at the one period of the year when a purely local or Provincial Bank would have money on deposit which could be used for loaning purposes, the demand for credit is at a minimum, while the period when loans are most urgently required is the time when deposits are not being made, but are reduced to the lowest figure. It will be seen, therefore, that a purely local Western Bank would never be able to function as a great loaning institution at the very time when loans were imperatively required. Under the Federal system, on the other hand, a surplus of money on deposit in one section of the country can be used in another section where it may be required, money flowing back and forth, or in a circle, with the varying seasonal requirements of all sections.

Mr. Dunning, therefore, held out no hope of the establishment of purely Western agricultural Banks. On the other hand, while frankly stating that the present Canadian Banking system was well designed to meet the needs of commerce—and it was for that purpose it was originally created—Mr. Dunning admitted it had its weaknesses from the Western agricultural standpoint. The remedy, however, was, in his opinion, to be found in the making of certain amendments to the Banking Act which would enable Banks to accept certain securities now prohibited to them and thereby make possible the extension of larger and better credit terms to farmers.

Many of the more far-seeing Western bankers realized the necessity of such amendments, and would favor them. Mr. Dunning, therefore, advised the farmers to urge such amendments when the Banking Act came up for its decennial revision a year or two hence, rather than to persist in the impracticable demand for the establishment of local or Provincial Banks in the Western Provinces created for the specific purpose of meeting the credit needs of agriculture. This was impossible in a country where 75 per cent. of the people were engaged in a seasonal occupation. The present Federal Banking system, revised to meet the needs of agriculture, offers the only practical solution to this problem which is so vital to the development and prosperity of the West.

WINTER HARD ON BABY

The winter season is a hard one on the baby. He is more or less confined to stuffy, badly ventilated rooms. It is so often stormy that the mother does not get him out in the fresh air as often as she should. He catches colds which rack his little system; his stomach and bowels get out of order and he becomes peevish and cross. To guard against this the mother should keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house. They regulate the stomach and bowels and break up colds. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

May Identify Soldier Dead

Use of Teeth Charts to be Adopted by U.S. Army.

The United States graves registration service has expressed itself as opposed to the selection at present of the body of an unidentified soldier from the United States war dead in France for removal and burial with honors in the United States, should congress enact legislation to this end. The reason is the constant reduction in the number of unidentified and the hope of the eventual identification of almost all of them through teeth charts which are being sent to Washington and compared with the records.

Good home made bread is the most palatable, wholesome and nourishing food in the world. It is far more economical than any other staple food. If people would eat less meat and other heavy foods they would feel better and help to keep down the cost of living. Bread made in the home with Royal Yeast Cakes is more nourishing and appetizing than any other. Nothing healthier for children and grown ups.

Scientists have discovered that yeast possesses remarkable curative powers due to its richness in vitamins—that by its use the blood is purified and enriched, and the resistive power of the body to disease greatly enhanced. Soak a cake of Royal Yeast for half an hour in a cup of luke-warm water with one teaspoon sugar. Then stir well and strain once or twice through muslin and drink the liquid. BETTER results will be obtained by allowing it to soak over night and drinking half an hour before breakfast. Repeat as often as desired. Send name and address for free booklet entitled "Royal Yeast for Better Health."

"Use Imperial Mica Axle Grease and Imperial Eureka Harness Oil."—Save your horses, your harness, your wagons.

Imperial Mica Axle Grease lightens loads.

It smooths the surface of axles with a coating of mica flakes. It cushions the axles with a layer of long-wearing grease, and materially reduces friction. Use half as much as you would of ordinary grease.

Imperial Eureka Harness Oil makes harness proof against dust, sweat and moisture. Keeps it soft and pliable. Prevents cracking and breaking of stitches. It prolongs the life of harness and adds greatly to its appearance. Is easily applied and surprisingly economical.

Both are sold in convenient sizes by dealers everywhere.

If Thin, Nervous, Run Down, Depressed, This Will Help!

The wear and strain of life has tended in recent years to produce nervous debility in a large percentage of our population.

Thousands are affected with a feeling they can't exactly describe. They are always tired and droopy, lack ambition, have poor appetite, look pale and suffer from depressing headaches and insomnia.

This condition is full of peril. It is the stepping stone to invalidism, the beginning of a shattered constitution.

We advise everyone in this condition to take a good medicine at once and try to get well while yet there is time.

Probably no better advice can be given than to use Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which have become famous in restoring the sick to good health. A general toning up of the system at once takes place. The whole body is vitalized by rich and pure blood. The appetite is increased, food is digested and natural strength rapidly increases. Headaches go because the bowels are regulated and all wastes are carried off.

There is no experiment about using Dr. Hamilton's Pills because they certainly restore the sick, as a trial will quickly prove. Just as good for the old as the young, and suitable to the needs of women and children. This grand family medicine should be in every home.

In addition to these delicacies Peeler had brought along some smoked fish of his own special brand. Widow Ross had brought coffee—a rarity to those old days, and each of the Bushwhackers had, as was their custom, brought something eatable to swell the good cheer. It was a big spread, and the men and women there assembled were doing justice to it. If there was gloom the good people were doing their best to dispel it. A lull fell on the assembly as Boy and Paisley entered and took their places at the table. Big McTavish helped them to meat and potatoes and then he began:

"We've been goin' on and summ'n' up. Seems like to us that Hallibut's gang will come back here right soon again, and we've been talkin' over what we'd better do. Hallibut's likely goin' to bring a bigger force next time. And every sign points to just such another winter comin'."

"It looks as though winter was here to stay, all right," observed Peeler, "and we're like to have a hard one, too. The rats are buildin' deep and strong."

Health

Comes to you and the children if you have Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the house. For "little ones" and "grown-ups" this old fashioned vegetable tonic and blood-maker is still used by the million bottles every year. It was first used by everybody 50 years ago and is still safe and sane because it contains no alcohol or narcotic. It is made up of blood-root, Oregon Grape root, Queen's root, Stone root, Cherry Bark, without alcohol. Make your blood redder and your health better by going to your nearest druggist and obtaining Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in tablet or liquid form.

CRITICAL BUTTER, SAYS: "I have used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for a number of years, and am pleased to recommend it as a blood purifier. I know it has no equal, as I used it for my boy. My neighbors and friends were surprised with the results. In fact, I do not think he would be alive to-day had it not been for the Medical Discovery. I also keep it on hand for coughs, as it differs so from other cough medicines; instead of upsetting the stomach, as most cough syrups do, it helps to clear the stomach. I only wish I had known about Dr. Pierce's medicine sooner."

and dress Simpson's wounds, but they told her to mind her own business. She tried to see who was in the gang, but they kept in the dark. About half an hour after they had gone she seen the schooner burn. Now, it's just this way. Hallibut has an excuse to push us off of here, as he wants to go home after they had gone she seen his boat and poor old Noah. And we, on the other hand, have an excuse to shoot Hallibut. But we mustn't do anything rash, boys. We must be careful."

Boy looked about the room in search of Gloss. He did not see her and rightly divined that she was hovering in some hidden place, over the death of her old friend.

He arose and passed unnoticed from the room. The sky was dark with storm-clouds and the snow was falling. He took the path toward the grove and as he passed the leech no dog lifted his head and watched him.

He entered the bush, but no dog followed him. That part lay behind. In the old playhouse, cold and dreary and dark, Boy found the girl.

"Gloss," he said, and she answered without lifting her head.

"I couldn't help it, Boy; I had to come. I know I did wrong, and, after that, I should have stayed. I know I should be careful. But, oh, Boy, I can't bear to think of it all. It's terrible!"

He went over and sat on a corner of the stump. He did not try to tempt to pacify her. He did not know how. He felt his impotency, and it made him miserable.

"Nobody will know, can you know, how good Noah has been to me," sobbed Gloss. "Oh, Boy, I don't know how I'll get along without him. I shut my eyes and I can see him there, and then I see him on that burning boat, and I see the fire all about him, reaching in his red fingers for him. Oh, I can't, I can't bear it, Boy; I can't, I can't!"

He lifted her up and bore her out of the snow-camp-tent open. She had not mentioned Simpson's name. He was thankful for that. She clung to him, her warm breath hitting his cheek and her hot tears eating his soul. And so he half carried, half led her back to the house.

"Go in and lie down," he said gently.

She loosened her arms slowly, looking into his eyes, and when she had gone he leaned weakly against the wall.

The guests had finished dinner and Mrs. DeClute was blocking the space between the table and the fireplace with her matronly figure and discouraging on the probabilities of a hard, long winter.

"As I was tellin' Ander on our way over, just exactly four years ago to-day, Moses and Zach was down with chicken-pox and David and Lettie Rebecca was gettin' the symptoms of it when it set in dark and money like it is to-day. Winter took a tight hold for nigh three months. Why, you'll remember there wa'n't no loggin' done that winter, and the wolves starved to death in the timber. Dyer, too, and turkey, and I guess that wa'n't no visitin' done much either, and give my life for it was one dance in the whole Bushwhackers' Place. Why, it got cold and stayed cold, and Joseph, our cat, friz stiff on the ladder when he was climbin' to the loft of the barn, and every sign points to just such another winter comin'."

"It looks as though winter was here to stay, all right," observed Peeler, "and we're like to have a hard one, too. The rats are buildin' deep and strong."

"My boy, Tom, he cut down a squirrel tree yesterday," declared Mrs. Ross, "and that squirrel had stored up ferd for a long winter. Hops, though, we don't have one like that one of our four years ago. I had both ears and one toe friz that winter."

"Guess we'd all better get home," laughed DeClute, "else we'll have to build some snowshoes to travel on."

"Yes," said Mrs. Peeler, "and I guess the cattle and she-p won't care about standin' out in this storm."

Gloss came out and sat at the table. Mary Ann, Moss sat down near her, and Bill Paisley, stepping carefully through the babies, drew close enough to the girls to say:

"Didn't know that you intended to come over, Mary Ann."

"Ma thought we ought to come," said the girl.

"Did you hear them prophesyin' a long winter?" asked Paisley.

Mary Ann looked up and smiled. "It can't be too long to suit me," she retorted.

"I wish it was spring right now," sighed Bill.

Gloss raised her head and looked inquiringly at the two.

"Ask Mary Ann," said Paisley solemnly.

"Tell Gloss yourself, if you want to, baby," flashed Mary Ann, hiding her face.

Mary Ann is to be Mrs. William Paisley next spring," grinned Bill. Gloss drew the blushing head over to her bosom.

"I'm glad," she said simply. The babies were bundled up and there was the commotion that comes of lingering leave-taking among good neighbors. It had been settled among the Bushwhackers as to what they should do when the inevitable should happen. Now they were going to their separate homes, each satisfied and determined. They would have been glad, even, had not

The gloom of Injun Noah's death still hung across their simple hearts. Just as DeClute reached for the latch the door opened and Duff Davis sprang into the room, a spray of powder snow following him as though he had been shot down from the scurrying clouds. He stood looking about him.

"Right here, Davie," cried Boy.

"Davie spoke a few low words, then darted under DeClute's arm and out into the darkening day."

The Bushwhackers looked at one another.

"What does the lad say?" asked Big McTavish.

Bess snatched up his cap.

"I'll see," he cried. "Wait here, everybody!"

He glanced at Gloss, then sped out after Davie. For half an hour after the boys had gone there was almost absolute silence among those gathered there.

"I've been wonderin' all day where Davie was," Paisley said at length. "You didn't see him when you was over?" turning to Peeler.

"When you said I better go and see if he had got home safe, I went over there to Betty's place," explained Peeler. "The old Granny came to the door, and when I asked if Davie had got home she said 'yes,' and slammed the door in my face. That's all I know, Bill."

"Boy is comin' now, and he's runnin'," cried Gloss from the window. "She's coming out and ran down the path through the deep snow to meet him."

"Oh, Boy," she called, "is there anythin' worth tellin'?"

He caught her in his arms and his voice was husky as he said: "Noah is alive and well, Gloss. He's over at old Betty's."

In a flash the good news passed to those waiting inside; and after the preliminary excitement had subsided they crowded about the bearer of the good news for his story.

"Noah was taken in the hold of the schooner," explained Boy, "and when he fought his way up through the smoke, the deck and masts were all afire. He made a run for it and jumped into the water, and when he swam around to where his skiff was hid he found the painter had been burned through and the boat gone. He gave up, then, but naturally he swam, and as good luck would have it, he found a piece of driftwood, but he's all right, people, and I guess we're all mighty glad."

Peeler stood forth and gave vent to his feelings in this wise: "There's some among us here, good folks, haven't give old Betsy her just dues. We've believed she was a witch and we was all scared of her. Now, neighbors, Betsy has done a mighty lot for us in one way and another, and I move that to show how much we appreciate all this we build her a brand new house next spring. That is, he give him some stuff that made him sleep, and he only woke up about an hour ago. Old Noah had an awful close shave, and Betsy won't let him come over here yet awhile, but he's all right, people, and I guess we're all mighty glad."

Applied After Shaving

Keeps the Skin Soft and Smooth

MANY men suffer from irritation of the skin as a result of shaving. With some it assumes a form of eczema and becomes most annoying and unsightly.

By applying a little of Dr. Chase's Ointment after shaving the irritation is overcome and such ailments as Barber's Itch and Eczema are avoided.

Dr. Chase's Ointment

A Story of the Sea

Is Unique Among the After-the-War Narratives.

In a great many ways Mr. Archibald Hurd's book, "A Merchant Fleet at War," is unique among the after-the-war narratives. In actual fact it is a record, at times so conservative, as to be almost an official report, of the war activities of the Cunard company. But concise and exact as is its record of actual events, it contains certain passages which are epic.

Consider, for example, this extract from page 103.

"It was on March 27, 1917, at eight o'clock in the evening that the Thracia, Captain R. Nicholas, while on a voyage with one from Hull, and Androsson, was sunk at sight and without warning, leaving only one survivor. Disappearing in one minute, those on board were left with no possible chance of saving their lives and it was only by a miracle that Cadet Douglas Duff, a boy of 16 years of age, was left to tell the tale. He succeeded in saving his life by clinging for sixteen hours to the keel of a capsized boat, during the early part of which time he was seen and jeered at by the crew of the submarine. One of them, indeed, raised a rifle and aimed at him, whereupon he shouted, perhaps characteristically of the service to which he belonged—'Shoot and be damned to you.' It seems to us all that all the romantic stories of the sea that ever were told, from Cassianica to Trafalgar Bay contain no greater thrill than this."

All Night With Asthma. Everyone knows how attacks of asthma often keep their victim awake the whole night long. Morning finds him wholly exhausted, his business, and yet, business must still be carried through. All this night suffering and lack of rest can be avoided by the use of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy, which drives away the attacks.

Your Home Medicine Chest. Among the standard household remedies that should always be on hand in your home medicine chest, none is more important than Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Its manifold usefulness in relieving pain and healing sickness is known by many thousands throughout the land. Always use Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for relieving rheumatic and sciatic pains, treating sore throats and chest, coughs, burns, scalds, cuts, bruises and sprains.

RICH, RED BLOOD MEANS HEALTH

Pale Cheeks and Bloodless Lips Are A Danger Signal.

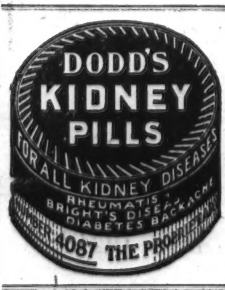

To be pale is no longer the fashion; to be languid is an affliction. Today the most winsome girl is the one with the pink tinge of health in her cheeks, lips naturally red, and eyes sparkling with life. Add to this a quick active step and everyone can tell the girl whose veins are full of the pure, rich blood of health. How different she appears from her ailing sisters, whose aching limbs and weak backs make them pale and dejected. Anemia is the cause of so much suffering among girls and women that it cannot be too widely known that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have transformed thousands of delicate anaemic invalids into happy, healthy women. These pills help to put rich red blood into the veins, and this blood reaches every part of the body, giving strength, rosy cheeks and brightness in place of weakness, prostrating headaches and a wretched state of half-health. Miss Edna E. Weaver, R.R. No. 1, Chippewa, Ont., says: "I was very much run down, weak, nervous and troubled with pains in the side. I tried different medicines but without any benefit until I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Under the use of this medicine, I gained strength, had better appetite, slept better and the pain in my side disappeared. My health has since remained excellent and I advise anyone troubled with anaemia, or weakness, to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial."

Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for anaemia, rheumatism, neuralgia and nervousness. Build up your blood and note how the purer and richer blood fights your battles against disease. Take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a tonic if you are not in the best physical condition and create a resistance that with the observance of ordinary rules of health will keep you well and strong. Get a box from the nearest drug store and begin the treatment now, or send to The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and the pills will be sent you postpaid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.

When spectacles were first introduced it was considered fashionable to wear them even by people who were not in the least near-sighted.

Gray Flannel for This Trim Frock

By Gertrude Beresford.

Flannel in all colors is a favored fabric in the realm of dress. In the model that is illustrated a very pretty shade of gray is chosen. It is fashioned on the simple lines that so accentuate the youthfulness of the figure. Dark blue crepe braid in two different widths decorates this delightful dress, which boasts the very short sleeves that are remarked on many of the new creations for spring. The hat of gray crepe de chine is a new version of the sailor. The crown is softly draped and the brim lightly rolled away from the face. A band of crepe de chine is drawn around the crown and tied at the sides so that the ends swing to the shoulder.

Worms, by the irritation that they cause in the stomach and intestines, deprive infants of the nourishment that they should derive from food, and mal-nutrition is the result. Miller's Worm Powders destroy worms and correct the morbid conditions in the stomach and bowels that are favorable to worms, so that the full nutriment of the child is assured and development in every way encouraged.

Grain Supplants Tobacco in the East.

Much of the tobacco land in Essex County, Ont., will be planted with grain. Last season more than 20,000,000 pounds of the smoker's weed raised in Ontario was not purchased, due to an over-supply in general, and farmers do not care to undergo a repetition. The grain-growing industry will lead to a greater hog production.

The Family Physician.—The good doctor is always worth his fee. But it is not always possible to get a doctor just when you want him. In such cases, common sense suggests the use of reliable, home remedies, such as Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, which is wonderfully effective in easing inflammatory pains and in healing cuts, scratches, bruises and sprains. The presence of this remedy in the family medicine chest saves many a fee.

Guest—"Look here! How long must I wait for the half portion of duck I ordered?"

Waiter—"Till somebody orders the other half. We can't go out and kill half a duck."

Minard's Liniment Relieves Neuralgia

Would Amend Banking System. Tentative steps for the establishment of a provincial rural credit system were taken recently by the Provincial Treasurer in suggesting that the Canadian Council of Agriculture commence an expert examination into the possibility of developing the Canadian banking system to meet the requirements of agriculture. The present banking system, he claimed, whilst a most admirable one, was not created to meet the demands for agriculture, and the system of management leaves it to the head office to grant loans, whose officials are not always in a position to judge the merits of the applicants.

THIS WOMAN'S MISERY

Ended by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Remarkable Recovery of Mrs. Church.

Smiths Falls, Ont.—"I suffered with falling of my organs, pains around my heart and in bowels and down my legs, neuralgia in my face and head, and that terrible sinking feeling. I felt that I could not live and would fix my house in order every night so there would be no trouble if I dropped in the night. My husband went to the drugstore to get the best remedy he had and he gave him Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took six bottles and felt a lot better. I will always recommend the Vegetable Compound, and you can use these facts as a testimonial. Mrs. J. O. Church, Box 845, Smiths Falls, Ont."

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from nervous prostration, displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion and dizziness. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

If there are any complications about which you need advice write in confidence to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

ALTARIO

The Oyster Supper and Dance for the Hospital was an unqualified success and everyone was in good spirits and enjoyed the old fashioned dances which were introduced in the program. Congratulations to the Nurses on the able way they put this evening across and thus helped materially the cause of the Red Cross here.

The Delegates from the Edmonton Red Cross Convention gave an interesting account of the proceedings also emphasized the need of organizing a Junior Red Cross Society here. Moved by A. Wright and seconded by J. McLeod that this be done at once was carried unanimously. Financial Statement showed funds in hand over $400. On the resignation of D. D. Thomas the Secretary, Mr. Alfred Pochet, was nominated to fill his place. Owing to inability to get a stenographer here in time the minutes of the Red Cross were not shown but it is hoped they will be used in the near future.

Mrs. Bewley of Kirrie has returned home after her operation in the Red Cross Hospital.

Baby Watson from up North is at present a patient in the children's ward.

A number of Altarios journeyed to Compo to see the Ministers' Bride and report that this comedy was admirably staged much credit due to the actors and manager Roy. Husted.

The Kirrie G. W. V. A. was attended by Altarios who report a good time and enjoyable dance.

Dolly Triller, formerly of Altario, is one of the Stars in The Runaway Girl at Moose Jaw. Most of the folks here will remember Dolly's dramatic representation of "Maggie" the wife of the immortal Jiggs—she gave promise then of unusual ability as a comedienne. Congratulations.

Friends of Mrs. Stinson will regret to hear she is very sick indeed at Calgary. Alice sold up the firm at Altario and moved to Calgary to be near the Hospital where Mrs. Stinson is receiving treatment.
